Pat Roebertson introduces a feature on the status of education in the United States. Cynthia Glaser summarizes a report which says teachers are struggling with jaded students. Junior high teacher Gene Soltner says his greatest challenge is to help each student feel good about himself. One veteran teacher says TV has molded kids' minds and attitudes and they want to be entertained. Pat Robertson says that hindering factors for teachers are single parents dumping their problems on teachers. Often childrens' home lives contribute to their non-readiness to learn at school. Sheila Walsh interviews Guy Doud who was a school drop out, but was recently named "Teacher Of The Year" by President reagan. Overweight with a poor self-image, Guy was influenced by a Christian teacher, accepted jesus, and his life turned around. It points outh the necessity for young people to have goals and a good self-image to help them succeed in life.

	Our hosts Pastor Ralph and Joanna Diaz interview Bruce Batchelder, Director of "Sundays," a Christian singles fellowship group. Bruce shares how he was hooked on alcohol, drugs, as well as sex. As a young millionaire, he lost $70,000 dollars in one night by gambling at Caesars Palace. He needed the drugs and alcohol to give him a false happiness he could not get with all of his money. He knew that he was dying and at a very abusive point. Bruce says the drugs make you happy for a moment, but then they kick you in the back. He literally began die when he cried out to God. Just then a man felt the unction to come to his hotel room--an ex-addict who led Bruce to the Lord. Christ delivered and saved him.

	Hosts Gloria and Isaiah Williams talk with Dr. Mary Branch, Pastor of Bible Talk School Of Faith and author of From Crack To Christ . She often comes in contact with users of the highly addictive drug crack cocaine. She says that people who freebase cocaine get a chemical rush and a spiritual rush because while they are high, Satans demons come in and take control of the mind. For this reason, the average drug dealer is often seen talking "to himself." The voices he hears are demonic. Crack			3/25/89 4:30am	1:59:48

	Hosts Joanna & Ralph Diaz talk with Carolyn Jones, author of Who Am I Really?: A Guide To Compulsive Behavior . Carolyn says that she had an inexpressible, compulsive need within her which led her to her Alcohol addiction. She had to have a drink. A suicidal, depressed, alcoholic, she realized that she was searching for something. She went to an occult meeting and got sucked in to that. Now, a suicidal, depressed, occult, alcoholic, she heard the Word of God, gave her life to Him. Now she teaches that the key to recovery comes only through Jesus Christ.

	Jim McClellan introduces Bob & Pauline Bartosch of "Overcomers Outreach," an organization addressing the needs of any kind of compulsive behavior. Bob, an alcoholic for many years, understands the needs of the alcoholic, the drug abuser, and other kinds of compulsive behavior. They emphasize the need for support groups to reinforce the reformation a person undergoes. Family members are very important to the person's continuing recovery and stability. Their youth overcomer groups are comprised of children of alcoholics. They often exhibit some of the same behavioral problems as their parents.

Pat Robertson introduces a special on the problem of drugs in America. He points out that one in five Americans have a drug problem, with even young children of elementary age getting involved. Reporter Ken Hume tells the story of Tony Laeffler who grew up in the ghetto section of North Jersey City. The streets were his home. After becoming a drifter, he got involved in drugs and sexual perversion which led to crime. On Skid Row in Chicago, he was led to Christ by a Salvation Army worker. His marriage was restored, and he now helps drug addicts and Skid Row inhabitants.

The 700 Club 0301-89

N PA/O 03/01/89 3:00 pm 59:30

Sheila Walsh and Scott Ross present a special feature on the problem of drug abuse in America. Jeffery Eisenach, President of Washington Policy Group comments that the moral vacuum that began in the 60's in the wake of the Vietnam War allowed drugs to enter into the lifestyle of the American youth almost imperceptively and without penalty. Out of his own background of drug use, Scott discussed with Sheila the deadly deceit of drugs, causing many to resort to extreme, bizarre behavior. One in ten Americans (23 million) use an illegal drug at least once a month.

ALCOHOL/DRUGS ABUSE (cont'd)	The 700 Club 0301-89  Pat Robertson introduces a special feature discussing the status of adult children of alcoholics (ACOA). Sheila Walsh reports on a study stating that there are 22 million adult alcoholics and 10 million children of alcoholics. There are a plethora of problems resulting such as neglect, abuse, and violence, which then translates into fear, depression, hate, and withdrawal from society and many other forms such as illness and resorting to alcohol and drug abuse. Psychiatrist Mark Schneiber says that ACOA react often in excessive behavior such as gambling, over-working, over-eating, sexual promiscuity, violence, and abuse in marriage. Such persons seem to learn four primary rules: a) rigidity, b)denial, c) isolation, and d)silence because of shame. Some resort to suicide.	N	PA/O	02/06/89 3:00pm	59:30
COST OF LIVING/ INFLATION/POV- ERTY	Miami Praise The Lord 0113-89  Jaonna and Ralph Diaz interview Dorris and Joel Jeune, proprietors and caretakers of an orphanage in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. They also run 66 schools and started 159 churches. Dorris was raised in an orphanage and knows first-hand the sort of impoverished conditions orphans are forced to endure, especially in an economically unstable country such as Haiti where poverty is the rule, more than the exception, she shares. They mention the tremendous financial costs involved in providing educational supplies for the schools, and supplying the food and clothing for the children in the orphanage. Many of the school kids cannot afford their meals, says Joel. He says that many take granted what they have. But for these impoverished kids, it is very hard to study on an empty stomach, Dorris says from her own experience. Both are grateful to TBN for providing financial support to run their orphanage. Dorris adds that only a full stomach has ears.	L	PA/O	01/13/89 11:30am 01/21/89 4:30am 02/01/89 3:30am	1:59:48 1:59:48 1:59:48

COST OF LIVING/ INFLATION/POV- ERTY	Praise The Lord 0130-89  Laverne and Edith tripp discuss ways for a church to help the poor with Rev. Tommy Barnet, Senior Pastor at First Assembly of God, Pheonix. Rev. Barnett contends that the church must find the poor, see their need and fill that need. His church has done that for the nine years he has led them. They send out buses to areas where the homeless are, bus them in, let them attend church, feed them, then give them supplies to clean up and chlothes to wear. He teaches this in his annual pastor's conference. They always find poor that need to be helped.	N	PA/O	01/30/89 10:00pm	1:59:48
CRIME	Miami Praise The Lord 0123-89  Host Cliff Horvath talks with ex-convict and author of The Life Of Jesus , Dwight Waters. While Dwight was in prison, he was converted and began ministering to the other inmates. During one 73 day period he wrote eight books designed to minister to criminals. The books appear to be childrens books because of the large number of illustrations, but Dwight says the average criminal does not have much education. The criminal's lack of education and skills may be what turned them to crime. Dwight explains that the visual aids are to help get the gospel message across to the prisoner. DISCRIMINATION/ MINORITY GROUPS (cont'd)	Feedback #118  Carlton Pearson moderates a panel discussion on inter-cultural communication barriers with panelists: Terry Robins, Chairman of "Dade Americans United To Protect the English Language;" Enos Schera, with "Citizens Of Dade United," a group similar to Terry's; Attorney Sanford Bohrer, dealing with First Amendment law; and Mark Gallegos, Attorney and Vice President of "Spanish American League Against Discrimination." Because of the large influx of Spanish speaking immigrants, especially in South Florida and states bordering Mexico, Spanish is increasingly being spoken with some areas attempting to pass legislation making Spanish co-equal with English. In Miami, many English speaking whites feel imposed upon and discriminated against by the Hispanic majority and the bi-lingual street signs. Terry Robins says that it's very hard to get a job in Miami if you don't speak Spanish. The audience opinion seems to be that government can only function effectively in one language. 	Christianity On Trial #21  Dr. Charles Manske, Founder and President of Christ College, Irvine, and Professor of Religion at Christ College, moderates a panel discussion on racism and the church. Panelists: Rev. Johnny Lopez, Hispanic, Lutheran minister; Dr. J.W. Montgomery, former Dean of Simon Greenleaf School Of Law; Dr. Jeff Johnson, Professor emeritus of Sociology at Christ College. Lopez points out that Hispanics are more comfortable worshipping with other Hispanics. Montgomery comments that different ethnic groups can have a healthy exchange of values when they worship together. Johnson, as a black, feels it is not necessary to worship in an integrated group. Montgomery feels that the church is obligated to integrate all nationalities. One cannot be a bigot and be a Christian.	N	PA/O	01/04/89 2:30pm	27:45

	Hosts Bill and Esther Illnisky talk with R.W. Schambach, an evangelist on several subjects, including education. Schambach talks about all the evil, demonic activity modern kids have to face in school. He tells a positive story of a little girl he once knew. When she was 16 years old in high school during the 70's. She was caught several times reading her Bible on her lunch hour. Being warned not to several times, she continued to read, was arrested and ordered by the federal court not to read the Bible at public school. Returning to school, she read again, the principal told her that he would give her a Bible class after school if she would stop her reading during school. Out of curiosity, about 500 drug addicts came to her 1st Bible study to see "what she was on". In that class of 700 students, she was able to lead 500 to Christ, because of one lone girl's revolution.			02/25/89 4:30am 03/08/89 3:30am	1:59:48 1:59:48

	Hosts Gloria and Isaiah Williams discuss home schooling with Reverend Patty Wimmers. Mrs. Wimmers says that home schooling is an alternative educational route that every Christian family should consider, especially with the state of public education today. She says when prayer was taken out of school, Satan walked in. She and her husband, a scientist, teach their 16 year old son at home. He is doing very well in his studies. They also teach him how to be an effective witness for Christ. She says that her son met a 17 year old kid at his old school who was studying to be a Satanic priest. Her son ministered to him.

	Jay sekulow, attorney, introduces a panel of guests to discuss education in the public schools. Panelists: Julia Spain, Attorney with McCarthy, Leonard, and Spain; Harold Calvin Ray, Attorney with Ray and Associates; Dave Barton of "Specialty Research Associated;" They discuss the deteriorating discipline of the Public school system. Offenses in the schools have risen dramatically with an alarming rise in suicides, drug abuse, alcohol abuse, and teenage pregnancy. Such conditions reduce the learning abilities of the students and tend to lower morale of the overall student body, as well as SAT scores. sexually transmitted diseases have shot up over 200% in the last 20 years. Suicides are up over 400% since 1962. The panel concurred in the belief that removing prayer and the recognition of God from schools paved the way for removing restraints on behavior.			01/12/89 1:30am	27:45

EDUCATION/ SCHOOLS (cont'd)	The 700 Club 0131-89  Pat Robertson introduces a feature on public education. He provide a commentary on various interviews as they point out problems facing parents who disapprove of their children's curriculum. Bills have been introduced to Congress which will give a choice for open enrollment for parents. President Busch favors giving more choice to the local community. Bernie Diamont, Principal of Alternative Education Complex says their school went from the bottom to the middle ranks in achievement with open enrollment. The plan is opposed because it does not generate enough revenue for some districts. Other options are being considered.	N	PA/O	01/31/89 3:00pm	59:30
	A Call To Action #8  Attorney Jay Sekulow moderates a panel discussion on education and the parents' role in attaining the best education possible for their children. Panelists: Julia Spain, of McCarthy, Leonard and Spain; Harold C. Ray of Ray and Associates; and Dave Barton with "Specialty Research Associated;" Dr. William Jones, Founder and Director of Student Mission Impact. They discuss the power that parents weild if used correctly, and they should avail themselves of the laws available to them. They agree that parents should teach their children to pray at home. 	Joy 0202-89  Eric Bueher, Director of Citizens For Excellent Education (CEE), explains to Jim McClellan that their purpose is to train parents through tapes, seminars, and publications, to to know how to participate in their children's education by becoming familiar with the school system and their laws. Since 90% of youth go to public schools, it is imperative for parents to know what they can and cannot do. CEE stresses building relationships with the school board and eventually getting on the school board. When the school's curriculum contradicts the parents' teaching, the parents should know how to intervene and change it.	N	PA/O	02/02/89 6:30am	56:48

	Joy 0306-89  Beverly Capps Burgess, educator, discusses with Jim McClellan principals of teaching small children in a way that makes learning enjoyable. Author of a Biblical curriculum called Friends With God and other books for children, Burgess stresses the importance of repetition as a method of pleasant learning activity for the child. She contends that teaching the Bible actually covers everything in life, and actually equips the child for meaningful living.	N	PA/O	03/06/89 6:30am	56:48
	The 700 Club 0314-89  Pat Robertson introduces a feature concerning some controversial education curriculum that is currently being tested in Virginia, and is being considered as a model for other states. The program includes "Bad Touches" (sexual abuse) for kindergarteners, terms for sexual organs for first graders, external sexual organs for third graders, and teen pregnancies and sexually transmitted diseases for fifth graders. Onalee McGraw, Ph.D., Educational Guidance Institute says there are no research statistics showing that such information has been significant in reducing pregnancies.
